IN THE HEART OF THE VIBRANT CUBA QUARTER

Welcome to the inaugural fundraising auction and networking event, the Awesome Arts Access Auction.

Every dollar you give will directly assist Arts Access Aotearoa with its work to make access to the arts possible for everyone in New Zealand - particularly people with a disability or impairment.

Projects that will be funded directly from your contribution to the event include our Arts For All programme, supporting arts organisations and venues across New Zealand to increase access for people with disabilities or impairments; our Creative Spaces Mentoring Project, building the leadership skills of grassroots community arts organisations; and our Information Centre, which helps people learn of and engage with arts opportunities in Wellington and throughout New Zealand

The Awesome Arts Access Auction will be a great evening with a complimentary drink on arrival (followed by a cash bar with drink specials), canapés, spot prizes and great live music from members of the Rodger Fox Wellington

We are excited to have over 40 items available from wonderful supporters, including a luxury break away at the Goldridge Resort with a round of golf at The Hills in Queenstown, a Gretchen Albrecht (framed limited edition print) and dinner for 8 served in your home by the fabulous caterers Simply Food.

We are particularly grateful to Olivier Lacoua, General Manager, and his staff of CQ Hotels Wellington. CQ Hotels is the essential partner and champion of accessibility, helping bring you the first Awesome Arts Access Auction.

Thank you to every person, artist, business, and arts organisation that have provided great auction items. Thanks to our suppliers for the food, beverages, and design, printing and technical expertise and for each person who has volunteered their support on the night and with ticket sales.
